6,

Issue of May 30, 1918

Deaths: Samuel S. Snyder of Ephrata; Mrs. Henry Ansel of Reamstown; Phineas K. Ziemer of near Terre Hill.

Samuel Garner confessed to the assaulting and murder of Miss Lizzie Lausch, who was found murdered last Saturday.

The funeral of Miss Lizzie Lausch of near Swartzville, was attended by over 5000 people. The services were held at Muddy Creek church.

Lightning on Tuesday evening struck the barn of Henry McQuate, near Stevens and the silo of Charles Forry near Reinholds, but the damage was slight.

The postoffice at Richland was entered Wednesday night and stamps and postal cards were stolen.

W. L. Stober chairman of the Second Red Cross drive for Denver borough reported that $1270 was collected.

Miss Cora Bard daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bard of near Denver underwent an appendectomy at the Lancaster General hospital Wednesday.

Largely attended Memorial Day exercises were held at Denver, Adamstown, Ephrata and Brownstown.

—)o(—

BOWMANSVILLE